

The London Training Centre is currently recruiting Board Members

Take this opportunity to experience a fulfilling role making a social impact in our community. Incorporated in 1987 as a non-profit, LTC is an award-winning social enterprise that provides a wide range of skill development opportunities for people facing barriers or challenges to employment, as well as those who are seeking out new career opportunities or training.

Highlights of our services include:

- Employment training
- A full menu of certifications and training provided in partnership with regulatory organizations including the Canadian Red Cross and the Middlesex-London Health Unit
- The Pre-Apprenticeship Culinary Program taught by our skilled chef instructors
- Unique dining experiences from our self-funded Local Food Skills Program
- Our banquet staffing agency, Allumette

Visit www.londontraining.on.ca for more details.

Board profile

- Operates under the Carver Policy Governance Model.
- Includes one employee, the executive director, who is responsible for operations and manages 20 centre staff.
- Includes 8-10 community members

Time commitment

- Board meeting take place on the third Wednesday of every month except August
- Length of term: Three years, renewable.
- All board members are invited to serve on a sub-committee related to their area of interest or expertise. Sub-committees generally meet as needed.

What we're looking for:

- Community members with an interest in social enterprise
- A background in business, finance, and/or accounting would be an asset
- Previous board experience would be welcomed but is not required.

To Apply

Complete and submit the application form with a brief cover letter stating your interest along with a current resume (if available) to:

Attention: Chris Montanini, Board Chair

Email: LondonTrainingCentreBoard@gmail.com

Mail: London Training Centre

317 Adelaide St. South Unit #110

London, ON. N5Z 3L3

Fax: 519- 685-4335